

Welcome to Marquette University's Admitted Student Day!

We are thrilled that you are with us today on campus! We hope that your visit will give you a good sense of who we are at Marquette and the opportunities that will be available to you. Our students are what truly make Marquette great, and you're going to get to meet a lot of them today. We will make sure that all of your questions are answered, but it's also important to relax, smile, laugh, and have some fun. Look up from the program, look around, and start to see yourself at Marquette.
